ABOUT TROPICAL TREASURES TOPICS

Zone-Pushing. Some tropicals may not be as tropical as they appear (or are believed) to be. Can you trick the Nature and to push the limits of tropical gardening?

Do-It-Yourself Projects. Having a greenhouse? Growing indoors? Find out how to make your dreams come true: low budget construction projects, lighting and watering systems, etc.

Plant School and Clinic. How to help plants to thrive, survive a stress or overcome a disease?

New Introductions. Stories about spectacular tropical plants and new introductions into the market.

Nature’s Food and Pharmacy. You can either eat it, or smell it, or treat with it. It’s good for you and yet you can grow it!

Legendary Plants. Some plants played important role in history, enriched cultures, effected lifestyles. The search for them led to discoveries of new worlds, influenced the raise and fall of empires.

From Gordon – the Palmaholic. All about palms and how to grow palms even outside the tropics.

Growing outdoors. You can either be used by your yard, or you can use your yard: take the most advantage of it by growing beautiful and life-sustaining presents of Nature that will give you something back for your efforts.

Wildlife Habitat. The Beauty of Tropics is in every bit of it, and how can we imagine a tropical paradise without its habitants? Nature’s masterpiece butterflies, amazing birds and bizarre insects, looking like aliens - tropical treasures are numerous and diverse, and some of them may become your garden’s visitors. Just create a welcome home for them!

Travel - Meet the Tropics. Travel the World with us: see the best botanical gardens and tropical countries where these plants grow in habitat.

Exotic Kaleidoscope. Cooking recipes, trivia, beautiful photographs of flowers and fruit and more.
